4th WFRS South American Regional Conference, Santiago Chile

October 24 – 28th, 2007

Mrs. Maria Teresa Eyzaguirre, President of the Chilean Rose Society opened the Convention with the showing of a beautiful film on “Chilean National Parks”. Afterwards Delegates enjoyed welcoming cocktails with Veronica and Fernando Lira de Cisternas.

On Thursday the lecture program included Dr. Gérald Meylan on “Old Roses, Modern Roses - A Love Match or a Marriage of Convenience?”, Hugo Sierra Goldberg on “Growth, Development and Selection of Rose Hips” (varieties for the central zone of Chile), Prof. François Joyaux on “Two European Roses in Latin America - Rosa de Castilla and Rose de Montezuma” and Thomas Proll on “The Research of a New Rose Variety: Difficulties and Pleasures”. Following lunch delegates toured rose gardens and an old colonial house.

The Opening of the 7th Rose Festival “La rose en el paisaje” was held at the Parque Araucana with refreshments offered by Las Condes Municipality. The Chilean Rose Society has a rose garden there and although it was not yet at the height of bloom there were some impressive climbing roses. Interesting rose arrangements were placed throughout the park.

Friday's lectures were Philippe Sauvegrain on “Perfume, Perfumers and Rose Perfume”, Helga Brichet on “Some Little-Known Old Roses in Europe”, Ludwig Taschner on “Cultivating Roses Is Easy and Exciting”. After the lectures we toured the Pre-Columbian Museum. Farewell Lunch was held on Saturday at Viña with a performance by the folkloric dance group Antumapu.

On Sunday we visited Valparaiso and Viña del Mar and enjoyed the drive through the beautiful wine country.

Thanks to Maria Teresa and her wonderful committee who made everyone so welcome and showed us so much of their amazing country.
